DIVISION ADVISORY

No. 035, s. 2022

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Public Schools District Supervisors
Public School Principals
All Others Concerned

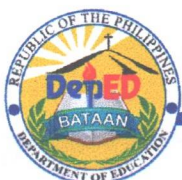

In response to the letter of Most Rev. Ruperto C. Santos, DD, Bishop of Balanga, this Office directs all schools which will serve as polling precincts to designate a specific place to be used by the Parish Pastoral Council for Responsible Voting (PPCRV) volunteers during local and national elections. PPCRV will provide voters' assistance desk and other related services for the people during the election day.

Attached is the letter of Most Rev. Santos, for your reference.

Wide dissemination to all is desired.

Peace!

The Bishop of Balanga as head of the accredited citizen's arm for election, the Parish Pastoral Council for responsible voting is inviting you for a meeting on April 13, 2022, Holy Wednesday, 9 O'clock in the morning, in his residence at Poblacion, Balanga City, Bataan. He wants to continue to foster professional relationship with you, your office, and other sectors involve in the coming National and Local Elections.

The following things will be the agenda for the meeting:

- Setting of a particular date and time to offer spiritual and moral nourishment for the election officers and electoral boards in the provincial and municipal level
- Request for assistance for things and spaces from the different public schools that would be of used for PPCRV volunteers to be assigned in different polling schools that would offer voter's assistance desk and other services for the people during the election day
- Setting of the identity of the PPCRV from other accredited citizen's arm during election
- Lining up of tasks to be accomplished in coordination with other sectors involve during the day of the election

With these things in mind, we hope to see you and the leaders of other sectors as we continue to coordinate and plan for a clean, honest, accurate, peaceful, and meaningful May 9, 2022 National and Local Elections.

May God bless you and your office!

MOST REV. RUPERTO C. SANTOS,
BISHOP OF BALANGA
