Department of Education RO
Region 3 (Central Luzon)

Dear Dr. Eclar,

Mabuhay!

This is to seek from your good office your usual support in inviting participants including students, teachers and parents on the following series of online International Training Programs:

Scientific Research For basic education students and teachers	February 17, 2021 5:00 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.
International Research Protocol For basic education students and teachers	February 20, 2021 8:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.
Effective Teaching & Learning Practices For basic education parents, students, and teachers	February 27, 2021 5:00 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

These training programs shall be conducted live by the trainers from Los Angeles California, USA via Google Meet. The programs aim to educate participants on the rudiments of research, teaching and effective learning practices.

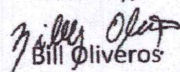

This program is organized by the STEM Education Training Hub, a training and consultancy center for students and teachers that specializes on training programs on education, research and STEM programs. For the past five years, we have trained over 15,000 participants in the field of research and education and still committed quality programs to the society. We seek for your support in this great endeavour by helping us disseminate this information.

Interested participants may register in this online registration form:
