SUBJECT : DONATIONS FOR PASS-A-BOOK PROJECT

DATE : October 3, 2022

By virtue of Republic Act 10661 also known as National Children's Month Act, children's month is being observed every November. This is an annual observance of the gains of the continuous pursuit towards the protection of the rights of children, promotion of their welfare, and in commemoration of the promulgation of the first international instrument that acknowledges and recognizes the rights of children as integral and core to human rights through the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) to which the Philippines is a signatory.

For this year, the NCM will celebrate its 30th year focusing on "Mental Health of the Children" bearing the theme, "Kalusugan, Kaisipan at Kapakanan ng Bawat Bata Ating Tutukan!".

In line with this celebration, the Provincial Government of Bataan through the Provincial Council for the Protection of Children is supporting the Pass-A-Book Project of the Regional Sub-Committee for the Welfare of which aims to provide learning materials to children in Indigenous People's Communities that can help with their learning development.

In behalf of the Regional Sub-Committee for the Welfare of Children we are requesting your support on this endeavor through in-kind donation for our children and youth beneficiaries, to wit:

Books

- Academic textbooks (English, Science, Filipino, Math, History) from kindergarten to Grade 12
- Literary textbooks (story books)
- Other learning textbooks such as encyclopedia, almanac, dictionary

Learning Materials

- Notebooks
- Pad Papers
- Plastic envelope with handle
- Pencil/ballpen
- Other learning tools

For your drop-off donations, a big box will be placed in Atrium Floor (near CSIU Station), The Bunker, City of Balanga, Bataan starting this month of October to November 2, 2022.

Let us support and work together towards "A Child-Friendly Philippines: for, by and with the Children".
