It is a trending nowadays how teachers check their learners' attendance. Wherein they ask them to say Darna! instead of saying Present! For them, it is a new and exciting way to check attendance and it gives learners somehow a motivation to go to school and attend their classes.

But, despite of positive feedback about the new strategy that teachers do, there are also negative feedbacks. As teachers, we should be the one promoting proper way of doing things. Though the new trending is somewhat exciting, we should not forget to inculcate to their young minds the importance of being proper and valuing the traditional way of checking their presence in school. Through this, we are encouraging them the value preserving Traditions.

Teachers should remember that we are responsible to what we put into the minds of our learners. We should set ourselves as their role model and be the best example that we can be. Let us spreadhead what is right and proper. Let us lead them the proper way so that they can always start their day right.

Remember what Judy Blume said, that "Our fingerprints don't fade from the lives we touch".
