English, why is it important? How does it help us in our daily living?

English is the language used by famous men and women to be able to communicate to the different people all over the world. It is not very hard to learn. Some Filipinos use of it correctly, especially in the pronunciation. That is why English is one of the learning areas taught in schools and universities. It is useful while holding meetings, conferences and debates which is composed of different languages. It is their main language to be able to communicate and understand what each one of them wanted to express.

English is used to be able to understand each other and serve as foundation to measure education in the country. Thus, would be a great help in the progress of our economy. Do you still remember the Asia-Pacific Conference (APEC)? They used it to understand and take action in the problems and it is the only language they used to express and understand what each of them is saying. They tried to help one another through English. And you know what? English is the language I use to communicate with you.
