

TEACHER'S GREATEST ACCOMPLISHMENTS

by:

Mary Grace B. Torrenueva

Teacher I, Orani North Elementary School Bataan

When we think of accomplishments we can regard and relate them to the people who were able to achieve great things not only for themselves alone but also for the sake of others. One notable being that is truly at par excellence in this aspect is a teacher. In our society we highly consider the teacher as someone who does heroic deeds for the benefit of the educational clientele.

A teacher who built a good name in the name of the profession is indeed an achiever. This kind of teacher was able to maintain a good track record for being an educator and was able to live with the standards and expectations in a teaching personnel.

An educator who improved in professional practice is truly remarkable. It is one of the greatest accomplishments of a teacher that he or she achieved enhancement in terms of teaching that this person was able to transform oneself into a better version in terms of methodologies and strategies in teaching.

It is notable that a teacher who provided knowledge to learners in the best way he or she renders may be considered admirable. Filling the minds of the learners with all the things that they need to learn is truly regarded as one of the greatest accomplishments of a teacher.

A teacher who trained learners on different skills in school is attributed as a great contribution to the holistic development of the said schoolchildren. It seems that through the teacher's guidance, the learners were able to acquire the needed competencies to grow in education.

It is evident that a teacher instilled endearing values among the children and may be regarded as prolific in this vocation or profession. The mere fact that you enriched the good values among young people proves that you were able to attain a big accomplishment in your mission.

A teacher who showed good examples to peers may be considered successful. Exemplary behaviors and attitudes are all attuned to the expected manifestations that a true teacher may yield.

When someone served the people in the community altruistically the result would be fulfilling. It is one of the greatest achievements of a teacher if he or she delivered services as required by work and position.

The attained professional advancement that a teacher incurred may mark as a great achievement. It is admirable for a teacher to acquire further education to widen his or her horizon and enrich knowledge for the sake of the learners.

With all the accomplishments of a teacher, for sure a gigantic impact was exhibited on this current generation.

References:

Kozar, O. (2021). 15 ways to evidence your teaching achievements at university.

<https://teche.mq.edu.au/2021/01/evidence-of-teaching-excellence/>

Alstad, C. (2021). How to Include a Quantitative List of Achievements in a Teacher

Resume. <https://resumes-for-teachers.com/blog/teachers-resume/teachers-resumes-need-to-include-a-quantitative-list-of-achievements/>