Madam:

Blessings of Peace!

On behalf of the members of the Pay it Forward Online Review Center, we would like to thank you for approving our request to extend our services to the EMT Takers last August and the CESWE takers last December. It was indeed a great opportunity to serve.

We are an independent volunteer group of civic-minded individuals who take the initiative to help others achieve their dreams of giving better service to our country through their professional development. We have conducted free online review sessions for CESWE takers who have produced 34 CES-WE passers to date. We are still awaiting the release of the result of the December 17, 2023 test.

The next batch of online review is scheduled on January 31 to March 15, 2023, via Zoom meeting. This is for the March 17 examination. Resource persons are the passers who took the review with the center. The idea is that once they pass, they will volunteer their services by being one of the reviewers as a way of paying it forward.

In line with these, we are seeking your endorsement for us to extend these services to prospective CESWE takers in the region who want to avail themselves of the free online review. Those interested can join by registering online through the Google form or join the GC: <https://m.me/j/AbanYOkP2Bxajhs6/>

Attached is the matrix for reference.

Looking forward to a favorable response on this matter.

Thank you and God Bless.

Yours truly,

Digitally signed
