DUALTECH CAREER & WORK VALUES ORIENTATION PROGRAM

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chiefs of Division, CID and SGOD
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Senior High School Principals
All Others Concerned

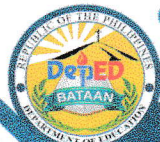

The Dualtech Center in Calamba City, Laguna, will hold a Career & Work Values Orientation Program on February 8, 2024, meticulously designed for a select group of individuals, including SDO-Bataan Personnel and Senior High School Principals.

The primary objective of this initiative is to explore the Dualtech Center's role in the dual training system of education in the Philippines. The program encompasses informative classroom sessions and offers a unique opportunity for participants to interact with campus scholars, learning facilitators, and coordinators. Beyond that, it aims to foster an exchange of best practices in areas such as community relations, advocacies, values, and formation, providing valuable insights for all participants involved in the program.

The scheduled itinerary is as follows:

- 10:00 am - Arrival/ Campus Tour
- 10:45 am - Kumustahan- Orientation
- 11:00 am - Talk on Welfare & Personal Development
- 11:40 am - Short Get-Together
- 12:00 noon - Photo Opportunity

Transportation service for the participants will be provided by Dualtech, and an early lunch will be served during the program. Ms. Rosemarie Papas and Ms. Myrna Barrioquinto, dedicated community relations volunteers, will serve as event coordinators.
