Dear Madam,

One of the objectives of the Bataan Youth Development Office is to establish a collaborative environment between Local Government Units, SK Officials, Youth/Youth-serving Organizations to provide our youth constituents holistic development programs as mandated in the Sangguniang Kabataan Reform Act of 2015.

Being enablers in generating and disseminating development opportunities for the youth, we would like to invite 10 to 15 student leaders from your institution to join the MAD Talks Volunteerism Forum that will be held on October 5, 2024 from 1PM to 5PM at His Touch Ministries, Brgy. San Jose, Balanga City, Bataan (near Café Natalia). The abovementioned activity is a flagship initiative of I am MAD (Making A Difference) Volunteers Inc., a nationwide, volunteer-powered nonprofit organization focused on mobilizing the Filipino citizens especially the youth in helping empower our younger generation to discover their dreams and passions, adopt a more values-oriented mindset, and eventually make a meaningful contribution to nation-building. We also invite your selected youth leaders to register in this link for monitoring and updates: <https://bit.ly/madtalksbtn>.

We are positive that your involvement with us will be a great help in advancing youth development in our province. Thank you very much and God bless!

Very truly yours,

JOIE DEE R. RUBIANO, RSW
