Madam:

Warm greetings!

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of the officers of Division Federated Barkada Kontra Droga, I am writing to seek your approval for an upcoming project entitled "Barkada Speaks," an educational podcast series initiated by the Division Federated Barkada Kontra Droga (DFBKD), which will be conducted from October 19 to November 10, on the critical substance abuse issue to address among students in the Province of Bataan.

This consists of eight podcast episodes published every Saturday and Sunday on our official DFBKD page to make the youth aware of the ills of smoking, alcohol, and drugs—known as "SAD"—and encourage them to inculcate better living habits. The podcasts are one of the current common methods for delivering information and entertainment, and with this medium, we wish to involve the students more easily and effectively so as to make them more supportive and change their behavior for the better.

It is our view that this project will provide our students and wider school community with much-needed information, thus ensuring a safer and healthier future. We respectfully request that this project be approved.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Respectfully yours,

MIYORE KYLE P. MORALES
DFBKD President
