When Vice- President and DepEd Secretary Sara Z. Duterte-Carpio launched the MATATAG Agenda, the Filipino people particularly the people in the education sector felt a big hope for the revitalization of the educational system.

Since everyone in the field is preparing for its full implementation, it is right for us to know the real benefits of this impressive curriculum.

DepEd's MATATAG: Bansang Makabata, Batang Makabansa was created primarily to set a new path for the Department of Education (DepEd) in facing the educational challenges that schools encounter at present.

Further, MATATAG Agenda may provide a relevant curriculum to yield competent and job ready individuals. This kind of curriculum will transform the learners into a competent, responsible, active, and job-ready citizens of the country.

Moreover, speeding up the delivery of basic education and other related services will be made possible. This is the avoidance of red tape and procrastination among the personnel who are obliged to provide educational facilities and services to learners.

Ensuring the learner's well-being will be more evident. Through the realization of inclusive education, all types of learners will be serve thus protecting all their rights and holistic aspects. Likewise, a positive learning environment must be realized in every school.

MATATAG Agenda will provide support and assistance to teachers for effective and excellent teaching. Through the provisions of quality trainings and seminars, the teachers will be well-oriented and well-abreast of the ideals and contents of the curriculum. Through professional development and growth that they will achieve, quality instructions will be assured for the sake of the learners.

Consequently, enhancing access, equity, equality, resiliency, and well-being of people within the education sector will be fully attained through the implementation of MATATAG Agenda. Truly, it is beneficial!

Precisely, MATATAG Agenda will provide reforms to the educational system that will improve the curriculum, delivery of education resources, facilities, and services for better graduates who will be contributory in attaining a better nation.
