Dear Dr. Violeta:

Mabuhay!

Pawikan Festival is an annual celebration of our advocacy to conserve and protect sea turtles or locally known as "Pawikan." It has been a cornerstone of our community's commitment to preserving the environment and raising awareness about the vital importance of sea turtle conservation.

The Bataan Peninsula Tourism Council Foundation, Inc. in partnership with the Provincial Government of Bataan through the Provincial Tourism Office will once again spearhead this year's celebration on December 7, 2024 at the Pawikan Conservation Center in Brgy. Nagbalayong, Morong, with the theme "KaBATAAN: Kabalik sa Pag-aalaga ng Pawikan." Various activities have been planned to make this event more festive and meaningful. One of the main events is the WALK FOR A CAUSE which will start at Nagbalayong Intersection to the Pawikan Conservation Center.

In line with this, may we invite you together with 20 of your members to participate in this undertaking. As part of the event, participants are enjoined to wear the advocacy shirt for the Walk for A Cause. The advocacy shirt costs Php. 280.00 and can be bought via the Bataan Tourism Service Cooperative at the Bataan Tourism Center. Attached herewith are the schedule of activities and registration forms for your reference. Deadline of submission of registration forms is on or before November 30, 2024.

For further details, your office may reach us at 0917-671-6995/(047) 935-0364 and look for Ms. Rochelle R. Palaypay.

Thank you and we look forward to your participation. Together let us create a remarkable Pawikan Festival 2024.

Very truly yours,

Ma. Isabel F. Garcia
