Dear School Administrators,

We are pleased to invite you to the upcoming event of the Philippine Association of Private Schools, Colleges, and Universities (PAPSCU) titled, "Empowering Education Executives (E3) in the New Reality," themed "Empowering Education Leaders" on 07 March 2025 at the Royce Hotel, M.A.Roxas Highway corner N. Aquino Avenue, Freeport Zone, Clark, Pampanga. This event will bring together educators, education leaders and executives to discuss, explore, and collaborate on the dynamic changes in education.

The event will consist of three insightful sessions:

Session 1: "Empowering Teachers, Elevating Learning: The School Leader's Role in Academic Supervision for Implementing the Revised K-12 Curriculum".

This session delves into the crucial role of principals in ensuring the successful implementation of the Revised K-12 Curriculum. Various vital strategies for a principal's academic supervision, fostering a culture of excellence, and supporting teachers in delivering high-quality education aligned with the curriculum goals will be discussed. Gain practical insights, best practices, and actionable steps to empower your school community and drive academic success through strong leadership and supervision.

Resource Person: Miguel Rapatan Ph.D., Faculty, De La Salle University, Consultant, PEAC

Session 2: "Data Governance 101 for School Leaders".

In today's educational landscape, data plays a pivotal role in shaping policies, improving student outcomes, and enhancing administrative efficiency. This session shall provide school leaders guidance on understanding data governance to ensure data quality, privacy, security, and compliance.

Resource Person: Butch Evarola, Certified Data Protection Officer; NPC DPO ACE Level 1 Passer; Head, PEAC National Secretariat IT and IM Uni.

Session 3: "Continuing the Advocacies of the Private Education Sector in Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM 2)"

Every school leader is an education advocate. In the era of EDCOM 2, the private education sector should seek to mobilize school leaders towards advocacy activities and initiatives that seek to resolve private education issues such as increased government support, reasonable regulation, rationalization of private and public education provision and quality assurance of all the providers.

Resource Persons:

Doris Fernandez Ferrer, Ph.D., Advisory Council, EDCOM 2; and Executive Director, Private Education Assistance Committee (PEAC)

Atty. Joseph Noel M. Estrada, Managing Partner, Estrada and Aquino (EA) Law

These sessions are designed to provide comprehensive insights into the strategies and practices that will help education leaders thrive in the evolving landscape of learning, through the support of PEAC's Assistance to Programs and Initiatives to Reform Education (ASPIRE) Program and the Association of Private Schools and Administrators-Division of City Schools of San Fernando, Pampanga as the PAPSCU Regional Organizing Committee.

Online registration opens on January 3, 2024 and ends on March 3, 2025. Regular rate within this period is Php2,000.00/participant. Payment can be deposited/transferred through the following options

Dear Dr. Ronnie,

Warm greetings to you! We are reaching out to seek your valued support and endorsement for the upcoming event organized by the Philippine Association of Private Schools, Colleges, and Universities (PAPSCU)—"Empowering Education Executives (E3) in the New Reality"—scheduled for March 7, 2025, Friday, at the Royce Hotel, M.A. Roxas Highway corner N. Aquino Avenue, Clark Freeport Zone, Pampanga.

This event, themed "Empowering Education Leaders", aims to bring together educators, education leaders, and executives to engage in meaningful discussions, explore innovative solutions, and collaborate on navigating the dynamic and evolving landscape of education.

This event will consist of three insightful sessions:

Session 1: "Empowering Teachers, Elevating Learning: The School Leader's Role in Academic Supervision for Implementing the Revised K-12 Curriculum".

Session 2: "Data Governance 101 for School Leaders".

Session 3: Continuing the Advocacies of the Private Education Sector in EDCOM 2

These sessions are designed to provide comprehensive insights into the strategies and practices that will help education leaders thrive in the evolving landscape of learning, through the support of PEAC's Assistance to Programs and Initiatives to Reform Education (ASPIRE) Program and the Association of Private Schools and Administrators (APSA)- Division of the City of San Fernando, Pampanga as PAPSCU Regional Organizing Committee.

We sincerely hope you will consider supporting this significant gathering of thought leaders as we work together to shape the future of education in the Philippines.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response and partnership in this important initiative. God bless you!

Attachment included for invite to private schools, colleges and universities of Region III.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. Edwina M. Arceo
