CALL FOR RESPONDENTS

The National Association for Sikolohiyang Pilipino, Inc. in partnership with Department of Science and Technology (DOST) - Philippine Council for Health Research and Development (PCHRD) is currently gathering data for their research project titled "Building Mental Health Resilience and Promoting Well-being among the Youth through Conversational Storytelling with a Chatbot". The purpose of the study is to develop a chatbot that uses a narrative-based dialogue model to provide well-being assessment, detection and early support to the youth.

In this regard, we are requested all Senior High School Learners across the region to answer the survey form through this link: <https://tinyurl.com/Mental-Health-Chatbot> or scan the QR code below. The survey form is open until June 10, 2025. Moreover, respondents will receive a token of appreciation.

For inquiries and clarifications, you may directly communicate with Dr. Ethel Ong, Lead Researcher at ethel.ong@dlsu.edu.ph.
