GOLDEN TIGER FILMS ENTERTAINMENT PRODUCTION ADVOCACY
FILM: TELL ME YOUR DREAMS

The Golden Tiger Films Entertainment Production is recommending the advocacy film titled Tell Me Your Dreams. The film, which was created with the intention of raising awareness about the challenges faced by marginalized communities, particularly the Aeta people in the mountains, it is also an important tool in shedding light on issues surrounding education, cultural preservation, and the barriers to access, that many indigenous groups encounter.

The film tells the story of a seasoned teacher, Divina, who struggles to teach in an Aeta community while navigating the complex interplay of cultural differences, resource limitations, and the importance of education for the next generation.

The Golden Tiger Films extends the invitation to public schools within the region.

Participation of students and teachers from public and private schools shall be purely voluntary and will not hamper instructional time in compliance with the provisions of DepEd Order No. 012, s. 2025 titled Multi-Year Implementing Guidelines on the School Calendar and Activities and DO No. 9, s. 2005 titled Instituting Measures to Increased Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith. Enclosed is the letter of invitation from the organizer for reference and other details.

REGIONAL DIRECTOR
DEPED, REGION III

Dear Sir:

I hope this letter finds you well. Golden Tiger Films Entertainment Production is forwarding you this humble letter to respectfully request your esteemed evaluation and recommendation of our advocacy film, TELL ME YOUR DREAMS. The film, which was created with the intention of raising awareness about the challenges faced by marginalized communities, particularly the Aeta people in the mountains, is an important tool in shedding light on issues surrounding education, cultural preservation, and the barriers to access, that many indigenous groups encounter.

As a film outfit committed to advocating equal rights to education, social justice and upholding marginalized communities, we believe that Tell Me Your Dreams has the potential to spark critical conversations and inspire action. The film tells the story of a seasoned teacher, Divina, who struggles to teach in an Aeta community while navigating the complex interplay of cultural differences, resource limitations, and the importance of education for the next generation.

Given your expertise in education, cultural advocacy and social work, we would deeply appreciate your professional evaluation of the film, focusing on the appropriateness of its representation of the marginalized community and its effectiveness as an advocacy tool. We would also be grateful if you could provide a recommendation on how it could be used to further our advocacy goals through educational platform. Attached with this letter is the official poster and synopsis of the film, rationale of the film that link to the curriculum, learning development plan for film viewers and a letter of prior review, evaluation and approval for film showing from the office of Legislative Affairs, External Partnership, and School Sports, DepEd Central Office.

We value your insight and would be honored to have your feedback as we continue to refine and promote the film's message. If possible, we would love to arrange a screening for you at your convenience for your review.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

DIREK ANTHONY HERNANDEZ
