Sir:

Warm greetings in Jesus' Name!

JAFS TRAVEL AND TOURS INC., also known as Jenny Travel and Tours, is a Department of Tourism-accredited travel company that has proudly served clients for the past 18 years. We specialize in providing educational tours for schools, Gender and Development (GAD) programs for both public and private institutions, and other customized travel-related services.

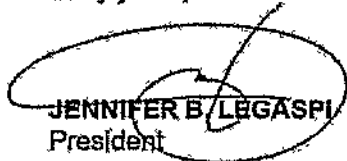

As one of the leading travel and tour providers in Central Luzon, our company is deeply committed to enriching the educational landscape by designing well-curated, meaningful field trips. These tours are not only geared toward enhancing students' experiential learning but also toward supporting the professional development of educators. For nearly two decades, we have built strong partnerships with numerous academic institutions at various levels of education.

Beyond education-focused trips, we also offer GAD Team Building Activities that align with the goals of empowerment, inclusivity, and community impact. These programs are tailored to strengthen team cohesion and contribute positively to the organizations we serve.

In this regard, we respectfully request your endorsement and support in allowing us to disseminate our Educational Tour Packages and GAD Program Proposals to all schools under the coverage of DepEd Regional Office III.

We would be honored to be of service to your schools and contribute to their continued growth and development. Thank you very much for your time and kind consideration. We look forward to your favorable response.

Truly yours,

JENNIFER B. LEGASPI
President
