DIR. RONNIE S. MALLARI
DIRECTOR
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
REGION III

Dear Director Mallari:

MEL MAGNO FILM COMPANY is one hundred percent Pampanga-based production outfit. We shoot our films around the province and we are proud of the Kapampangan talents we cast in our films—films we show not only in the Philippines but also around the world.

We are also bringing pride to our province when we are recognized in the international competitions like Short+Sweet Festival based in Australia, where we won 2nd Runner-up; and in Las Vegas Filipino Film Festival where we landed as finalist from the more than 200 entries from Filipino filmmakers around the world.

I still have hundreds of scripts I wish to produce to participate in other international film festivals and to discover more local talents. However, that will only materialize if I get the support of the academic institutions at least in our cities and municipalities in Pampanga, both in public and private institutions.

It is for the aforementioned motives that I'm seeking your endorsement to the public and private academic institutions in the cities and districts of Pampanga to support my productions instead of other films from other agents who don't give honor to our province and opportunity to our local talents.

For this school year, we are offering Ang Sulat Ng Diyos, a film laden with values and is intended for elementary and high school students. Tickets are priced at only P250.00 and the venue of the film showing is at the Heroes Hall Minicon.

You may reach me at 0945-5233027 for further details.

Long live DEPED Region 3!
Long live the Philippine Independent Cinema!

Very sincerely yours,

MEL MAGNO
