This event aims to heighten public awareness on consumer rights and responsibilities, promote consumer education, and strengthen the partnership between the government, private sector, and the general public in ensuring consumer protection and welfare.

Every year, the Department of Trade and Industry leads the celebration of Consumer Welfare Month by conducting various activities that highlight the importance of protecting consumer rights, promoting fair trade practices, and empowering the public through education, information, and advocacy programs that advance consumer welfare. Some of these activities include:

- Provincial Consumer Quiz Bee for high school students on October 10, 2025, 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm.
- Provincial Spoken Poetry Competition for high school students on October 17, 2025 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm.

These activities aim to promote awareness of consumer rights and responsibilities while providing a meaningful platform to showcase the talents and knowledge of our youth.

In this regard, may we respectfully request your good office to designate one (1) participant from each municipality, either from the Junior or from the Senior High School level within our province, to take part in the aforementioned competitions.
