The Provincial Government of Bataan, through the Provincial Tourism Office in partnership with the Bataan Peninsula Tourism Council Foundation, Inc., will once again spearhead the Pawikan Festival celebration at the Pawikan Conservation Center in Brgy. Nagbalayong, Morong on November 29, 2025. The Pawikan Festival has, through the years, inspired people and organizations to support the government's marine turtle protection and propagation programs to ensure the survival and growth of the country's remaining marine turtle populations.

To make the celebration meaningful and exciting, series of activities are set, to wit:
