Dear Superintendent Violeta:

In line with the continuing efforts of DepEd Regional Office III to support the transition of Senior High School (SHS) graduates into meaningful career pathways, we are pleased to announce the conduct of the DepEd RO III Hiring Caravan for Senior High School Graduates Project in your division on March 3-5, 2026.

This initiative is anchored on the Senior High School Exit Points, particularly employment, as stipulated in the K to 12 Programs/Revise.

The Hiring Caravan aims to provide SHS graduates with direct access to potential employers, thereby facilitating their smooth integration into the workforce. It will also serve as a platform to strengthen partnerships between schools, local industries, and government agencies, ensuring that our graduates are equipped with opportunities that match their skills and competencies.

The undersigned requests your good office to coordinate with the senior high schools in the municipality of Orani, Limay, Lamao, and Morong to ensure the successful implementation of this activity. Your leadership and support are crucial in maximizing the impact of this initiative for the benefit of our SHS graduates.

For guidance and coordination, your designated staff may communicate with Dr. Charies N. Pena, Education Program Supervisor at charies.pena@deped.gov.ph

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE S. MALLARI, PhD, CESO III
Regional Director
