CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION
PHASE 1: MILESTONE ACCOMPLISHMENT (ALL CATEGORIES)

For Phase 1 (Evaluation of Milestone Accomplishment), the criteria for evaluation shall focus on the MILESTONE ACCOMPLISHMENT of the nominee.

A milestone accomplishment is what defines the nominee's career as a teacher or a school head. For the purpose of this search, the period covered by the milestone accomplishment shall be within the last two (2) school years (2024–2025 and 2025–2026). It may have any or all of the following characteristics:

1. An innovation or discovery that addresses the felt need and helps overcome a major obstacle in the workplace or community;
2. It creates a significant positive impact on the target beneficiaries;
3. It is sustainable, i.e., the intended innovations, changes, and reforms continue to be carried out, or goods and services continue to be provided to the target beneficiaries over a period of time;
4. It benefits the community of learners and/or teachers within the school he/she belongs but these contributions are above and beyond the usual responsibilities of a teacher/department head/school head/supervisor (CONTRIBUTIONS TO SERVICE);
5. It serves the bigger academic community outside of his/her own school organization i.e. within his/her district, division, region, educational institutions, and communities are above and beyond the usual responsibilities to the community outside the educational system (CONTRIBUTIONS TO COMMUNITY).
6. The MILESTONE ACCOMPLISHMENT shall be evaluated based on the following areas:

A. ROLE OF THE NOMINEE

- a) How well the nominee performed his/her specific roles and demonstrated his/her leadership skills, which contributed significantly to the success of the accomplishment.
- b) Some examples of roles performed would be that the nominee conceptualized, implemented, initiated, spearheaded, formulated, chaired, led, transformed, developed, strategized, supervised, or facilitated a particular accomplishment.

B. INNOVATION

- a) Innovative actions or discoveries that addressed a felt need or helped overcome a major obstacle in their workplace or community.
- b) The innovation must be sustainable, i.e., the intended innovations, changes, and reforms continue to be carried out, or goods and services continue to be provided to the target beneficiaries over a period of time.

C. IMPACT

- a) What was its impact on learners' academic performance?
- b) Were the objectives of the accomplishment met?
- c) How were the objectives met?
- d) What were the effects to the achievement on the intended beneficiaries or stakeholders?

Each nominee is required to submit one milestone accomplishment which shall capture both Contributions to Service and Contributions to Community.

Contributions to Service refers to the nominee's impact in the teaching profession/school leadership benefiting the community of teachers or learners within his/her academic institution, but these contributions are above and beyond the usual responsibilities of a teacher or a school head. To avoid repetition, these contributions may be themed or grouped according to their general idea or concept. Some examples of accomplishments that are grouped thematically are the following:

1. Teaching materials/professional development materials such as module teaching and learning guides, academic curricula, NAT reviewers, and other related learning/professional development materials that have greatly raised the scores of the students and standardized tests;
2. A discovery, innovation, or creation such as teaching devices or apparatuses;
3. Technology-based learning tools (e.g., learning games, gamification);
4. Teaching approaches (e.g., Modified explicit instruction approach);
5. Technology-aided instructional supervision, school leadership and management; and
6. Stakeholders' involvement/participation, forging partnerships, that contributed to school improvement/performance.

Contributions to Community refers to the nominee's contributions to the bigger academic community outside of his/her own school (i.e., within the district, division, region, or the entire national educational system). These contributions may also refer to impacts that benefit the greater community outside the educational system. Some examples of accomplishments are the following:

1. Teaching approaches (e.g., Modified Explicit Instruction Approach) that are adopted in the regional or national level;
2. Technology-based teaching, learning tools adopted by other teachers outside of the teacher's own school;
3. Publications, such as books, manuals, policy papers, etc., and action researches (i.e., experience and/or evidence-based action researches) that improved the learning process within the school;
4. Outreach to far-flung areas nearby barangays that aim to educate a target population, train individuals, or provide needed goods and services; and
5. Involvement in professional organizations/associations that contribute to community development.
