SUBJECT: INVITATION AND REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE IN THE TEACHER EDUCATION ROADMAP 2035 CARAVAN ON SEPTEMBER 22-25, 2026

Dear SECRETARY ANGARA:

Greetings from the TEC Secretariat!

As part of the National Teachers' Month Celebration 2026, the Teacher Education Council (TEC) will be conducting the #GurongMayKalidad: Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 Caravan from September 22-25 2026, at Saint Louis University, Baguio City.

The Teacher Education Roadmap Caravan aims to convene key stakeholders across the Teacher Education sector to establish the Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 as the shared national framework for developing quality educators.

The Caravan also aims to achieve the following objectives:

1. Strengthen public and institutional support for the teaching profession and teacher education reforms;
2. Generate commitments and recommendations that can inform TEC's next steps and implementation planning; and
3. Showcase programs, initiatives, and opportunities related to teacher preparation, career progression, inclusion, research, and innovation, among others.

In this regard, we respectfully invite Undersecretary Garma and Regional Directors Aquino, Capulong, and Andaya as honored guests to the first day of the Caravan on 22 September 2026.

In addition, we respectfully request for your endorsement of this activity, through the Office of the Undersecretary for Governance and Operations, to the DepEd Regional Offices III, CAR, and NCR for their kind assistance in coordinating and ensuring the participation of DepEd supervisors, school heads, teachers, and learners under their jurisdiction throughout the duration of the Caravan.

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL

Please note that participation in the Caravan is free of charge. In addition, the participation of learners shall be requested only for the first day (September 22) of the Caravan, while supervisors, school heads, and teachers are requested to participate in all days of the Caravan, subject to the DepEd's policies and guidelines on the participation of learners and teachers in out-of-school activities. The TEC shall also require a pre-registration to ensure proper documentation of all participants.

As well, Continuing Professional Development (CPD) units will be awarded to eligible participants who complete the various workshops during the Caravan. Participants shall be responsible for their own travel-related expenses, including transportation, meals, and accommodation, which shall be charged against their respective local funds. Certificates of Appearance and Certificates of Participation shall be provided to the participants upon their completion of the required documentation (i.e., attendance sheets, evaluation forms) for the activity.

For coordination or questions, you may contact us through email at secretariat@tec.gov.ph, or through Mr. Jan Zenne O. Genandoy, Project Development Officer III, through Viber at +63 956 834 5346.

Your assistance is invaluable in advancing and delivering our goals for the development of a quality teacher education system. We hope for your kind consideration.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

JENNIE V. JOCSON, Ph.D.
Executive Director V
